

Bridgton United Methodist Church
Bridgton, Maine

The dictionary describes “open House” as:

- 1) A place or situation in which all visitors are welcome.
- 2) A day when members of the public are invited to visit a place or institution, esp. one to which they do not normally have access.

You’ve heard of “Open Houses” inviting people to come inside to see what’s new.

Well, you are invited to our “Open Church” celebration. We are opening our arms and our doors. Come and experience the ever growing spirit of God swirling around within these walls and out into our community and our world.

Church service on April 21, 2013 from

11 am—12 noon followed by a
